Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 19 – 20 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior arts teach combinatorial logic system emulated by read-only memory, which differs from the claimed invention where read-only memory system with read-only data being stored in combinatorial logic. The system comprising:

at least one binary logic function device adapted to receive two binary address bits and generate a plurality of binary values from

(i) the two address bits and

(ii) a plurality of logic functions;

at least one multiplexer adapted to receive at least one of the plurality of binary values;

at least one decoder for decoding at least one other address bit; and at least one other multiplexer, where the output of the at least one multiplexer is provided to said at least one other multiplexer, the output of the at least one other multiplexer being said read-only data.

Art Unit: 2818

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
